A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

ALLEGED CONFESSIONS.

The trial of Fred Jenkins for the murder of William Smith was resumed in Culpeper yesterday morning. The jury retired while witnesses were examined before the court as to alleged confessions by Fred Jenkins. The court allowed the testimony to go to the jury.

W. E. Fisher stated that he saw Fred Jenkins on the evening after the murder of Smith, and that Jenkins voluntarily made a confession to him that he had killed William Smith, and that Claude Norris gave him (Jenkins) $9, a bottle of whisky and a gun to kill Smith. Fisher said that Jenkins told him that William Seal had told him to make this confession.

James Judd, deputy sheriff of Culpeper county, was next sworn. He said that on September 17 he heard Fred Jenkins confess that he had killed William Smith, and that he was paid to do it.

The State here rested and the defense called J. J. Miller, who said that he had known Fred Jenkins for years, and that his general reputation was first class for peacefulness, sobriety and honesty, but he was a very timid boy. Robert Hand gave similar testimony, as did a number of other witnesses. Eugene Willis said that Jenkins was a timid boy, and likely to do what one of a stronger will power told him he must do.

Wise Dodson told the jury that he heard William Seal say that he certainly would kill William Smith. Charles Sisk gave similar testimony. Robert King said that Seal told him he would kill William Smith for marrying his daughter. William Simpson stated that he also heard Seal say he would kill Smith. Frank Jenkins, father of the accused, said he heard Seal threaten the life of William Smith. Mrs. Liza Willis stated that Seal told her last July that before two months he would kill Bill Smith.

The next witness was the accused, who, though an ignorant boy, told his story in a seemingly simple and honest way. During the testimony of this witness there was a great deal of suppressed excitement in the courtroom. He said that old man William Seal had ordered him to go to Claude Norris's house and borrow his gun and kill Smith. He got the gun, Seal taking it from him after telling him that if he did not then shoot Smith that he (Seal) would kill him (Jenkins). Seal then went to Smith's barn and called Smith from his house. Witness saw Seal shoot and kill Smith, and, and after the shooting, Seal told him to go and return the gun and go through the cornfield, and that he (Seal) would take off his shoes and go home over the sod land.

The prisoner bore up well on his rigorous cross-examination, and his testimony in chief was not to any extent shaken.

After the examination of a number of other witnesses the defense rested, and the prosecution introduced some witnesses in rebuttal

About Digestion.

It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and enable them to perform their functions. The result is a relish for your food, increased strength and weight, greater endurance and a clear head. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and chilblain disappear under its healing influence Guaranteed by druggists. 25c.

ANXIOUS TO BE HANGED.

Richard Walton, colored, was hanged in Chicago yesterday for the murder of Mrs. Louise Grant, white, on September 19.

Mrs. Grant was a kindergarten instructor and had for many years managed schools of this character in connection with churches. She was an expert and of the highest personal character.

Intending to move from one apartment to another, she had employed Walton to assist in packing some of her furniture. At night Walton, with the intention of stealing some of the valuables which he had noticed in her rooms, climbed through a window and strangled Mrs. Grant while she lay in bed. He gave some of the jewelry to a colored woman, and through this he was traced and finally arrested at Springfield, Ill. He confessed as soon as captured and pleaded guilty.

Judge Brentano, who passed sentence of death upon the prisoner, was urged by Walton to make the date earlier than December 13. The judge replied:

"I very much regret that the law will not permit me to fix an earlier time."

During his confinement in the county jail Walton repeatedly declared that he was anxious to be hanged as soon as possible, and had made a great show of religious conversion.

There is nothing better offered the public today for stomach troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, etc., than Kodol. This is a scientific preparation of natural digestants combined with vegetable acids and it contains the same juices found in every healthy stomach. Kodol is guaranteed to give relief. It is pleasant to take; it will make you feel fine by digesting what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

NARROW ESCAPE.

John Soley, of Cleveland, Ohio, who murdered his sweetheart, came near being electrocuted yesterday in spite of the fact that the commutation papers from the governor had been mailed to the warden of the State penitentiary in Cleveland. Receiving no word from the governor Thursday night, the warden prepared to execute Soley. On second thought he telephoned the governor and found that the papers had been mailed. The execution was therefore, postponed. The papers were delivered yesterday. They had been held up in the post-office for lack of postage. The papers proved to be a commutation of the death sentence of Soley to life imprisonment.

A DISPATCH from Minneapolis in yesterday's Gazette told of a man murdering his wife and then killing himself because he had no money with which to buy Christmas goods. He had previously suggested to the members of his family that they all commit suicide by inhaling gas. A writer in the New York Tribune who has apparently grown tired of Christmas extravagance inveighs against the intemperate celebration of a season which he thinks should be marked by a greater degree of common sense than is shown by a large majority who imagine it is incumbent upon them to deplete their exchequers or rush in debt for the purpose of making displays on Christmas. Among other things he says:

Like the Athenians of old, we of today are always looking for "something new."! New thought, new theology, new methods. Why not, then, a "new Christmas." Time was when the day was observed only by the members of the Episcopal, or Anglican, and Catholic churches. * * * But the custom has been adopted now by all sects, and the result is that Christmas shopping has become so universal that for the last fifteen years the season, which now begins before the month of December, has become such a rushing, whirling one that it is a grave doubt if it does not bring with it as much pain as pleasure. Now a time has come when the scarcity of money forces people to be more moderate in their gifts. Why not take advantage of the opportunity to call a halt in the extravagant mode of keeping Christmas, which has wellnigh destroyed its true spirit? In one of the Christmas hymns, which is, perhaps, the most beautiful of all to many of us who have borne the burden and heat of the day, there occurs the line "Pause, and hear the angels sing." What do they sing? "Peace on earth, good will to men." Not only good will, but peace! Good will has led to the mad rush, but where is the peace? Not where brains are racked to think of the presents for those who are already burdened with a large share of this world's goods; not where discontent is felt because there is not enough money to spend; not where it has become the custom to give grudgingly to return a politeness or a gift; not where the salesmen or saleswomen are worked long after their usual time until the week before Christmas has become a time to be dreaded! Pause this year and try to hear "the angels sing." Money is not plentiful, but gifts may be given whether we have little or much to spend. Let us take time and the trouble to give them where they are most needed. To the weary, to the discouraged, to the lonely, even a Christmas card brings joy, and the poor this year, at least, may be found without much trouble. The "new Christmas" will be found to be like most new things —only a return to the old festival of the Nativity—and with true joy we will hear the rustle of the angels' wings, and our hearts will echo their song, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

A VEIN of superstition doubtless runs through a large percentage of the human race. It is not only apparent to those in the humble walks of life, but it occasionally manifests itself in representative men. It is said that Charles Dickens invariably left London when the first instalment of his stories appeared. He did did so because he happened to be out of the city when the first number of the Pickwick Paper was issued. The success of that production was phenomenal, and it is believed Dickens entertained a notion that it was necessary for him to leave the great metropolis every time he started a new novel. Many people were anxious until after twelve o'clock last night for the reason that yesterday was Friday (generally believed to be an unlucky day) and also the 13th of the month. Three workmen of a party of 13 employed on the Third avenue, New York, elevated railway, were yesterday burned, two fatally, when one of their number dropped a hammer on the third rail. The man who dropped the hammer was enveloped in flames, which burned the clothes from his back, even melting his watch case and keys. The 13 men had been commenting on the fact that it was Friday the 13th, and that there were 13 in the gang. This, it is believed, made some of them nervous and caused the man to drop the hammer which resulted in the accident. The remainder of the gang refused to go to work, claiming that they would not again tempt the day and date.

WAR was correctly defined by General Sherman. Not only is human life sacrificed and property destroyed, but enormous expenditures are entailed in conducting war on modern plans. The Navy Department has awarded contracts for furnishing shells for the Bureau of Ordnance as follows; The Firth Sterling Steel Company, 3,000 12-inch at $220 each, 2,500 8-inch at $70 each, 3,0000 7-inch at $50 each and 24,000 6-inch at $26,50 each. The Crucible Steel Company, 1,500 12-inch at $239 each and 300 13-inch at $300 each. The Bethlehem Steel Company, 40,000 5-inch shells at $20.90 each. We are told the time will come when men will beat their swords into plough shares and their spears into pruning hooks, but the watchman upon Zion's tower is still awaiting the advent of that era.

From Washington

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Dec. 14.

When the battleship fleet sails for the Pacific, the organization of another big fleet will be started on the Atlantic seaboard. By the first of the year, the first division of the new fleet will be under tentative formation, to be known as the "Third squadron of the Atlantic fleet." At its head will be the new battleship Mississippi. She will be joined by the Idaho, the Indiana, and the New Hampshire. It is expected that these four ships will be under one commander, probably Rear Admiral Clover. The second division will be organized as rapidly as the first. It will be made up of old protected cruisers, all recently renovated. The flagship will be the Minneapolis, and William S. Swift, who will be promoted to rear admiral January 3, will probably be in command. The other units of this division will be the Columbia, Des Moines and Tacoma.

In the spring, a special division will be formed by the three scout cruisers, Chester, Birmingham and Salem, and by June or July the two armored cruisers North Carolina and Montana, now being completed at Newport News, will form another special division. With the new ships, and all of the old ones made as much like new as possible, there will be sufficient battleships and cruisers to form full two squadrons of sixteen ships within a year and a half. A torpedo and submarine division already is being formed under the direction of Captain C. C. Marsh, and maneuvers will be conducted in the Chesapeake Bay next spring.

President Roosevelt was presented this afternoon with a loving cup from the mayor of Manila by Lieut. Lewis J. Van Schaick of the Fourth Infantry, who was special bearer of the gift. The cup is of silver, and gold lined, made of native ore, and stands one foot in height. The cup is supposed to represent a combined tribute from the natives of the Philippine Islands and the American officers there, as from it was drank the first toast at the Manila Taft banquet to the President, it being passed from lip to lip among the guests. Owing to the stringent customs regulations on importations from the Philippines, the ceremony of presentation was delayed several days by the cup being detained in the Gergetown custom house under bond.

State Senator Alfred R. Page, of New York, generally recognized as Gov. Hughes' chief lieutenant, was at the White House today to see the President, and immediately rumors began to fly about a "reconciliation" between the governor and President Roosevelt. "There is really no ill-feeling between the President and Gov. Hughes," said Page, upon leaving the White House. "That impression is based rather upon indiscreet expressions by friends of the two men." New York, he said, would go to the convention pledged for Hughes.

Letters addressed to "Santa Claus" will no louger go to the dead letter office. The Postmaster General issued the following order today to every postmaster in the United States: "Hereafter, and until January 1, 1908, postmasters are directed to deliver all letters arriving at their respective postoffices addressed plainly and unmistakably to 'Santa Claus' without any other terms or expressions identifying the person for whom such letters are intended, to any regularly organized charitable society in the city or town of address, to be used exclusively for philanthropic purposes. In the event that claim should be made by more than one such society for letters so addressed, such letters will be equally divided according to number between or among the societies making such claim."

The condition of Mrs. Longworth, who underwent an operation for appendicitis on Thursday, was much improved today. Surgeon General Rixey announced that she had passed a comfortable night and was progressing nicely.

Postmaster General Meyer announced today that the President had decided to re-appoint Postmaster Wyman at St. Louis. This ends a bitter fight that has been waged against Wyman. Regarding the reappointment of Wyman, the Postmaster General said: "This is merely in line with the policy introduced two years ago, of retaining in office postmasters of presidential, as well as fourth class officers who are now performing their duties satisfactorily."

Efforts to reorganize the defunct bank of commerce of Kansas City, can secure the sanction of the comptroller of the currency only under certain conditions. One is that none of the officers and directors of the present institution can serve in that capacity under the new regime. The comptroller authorized this announcement today.

Vice President Fairbanks has one vote pledged to him in Wyoming. He and Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, met in an ante-room next to the President's private office today at the White House. With the Wyoming man were a bride and groom, the latter a resident of Omaha, Neb., and the lady of his choice just from Wyoming. "Aren't you sorry that you will loose your vote now that you are no longer a citizen of Wyoming?" asked the Vice President of the bride. "I shall go back in order to regain my residence to vote for you for President," came the reply. The bride was the only one who blushed in that room.

Senator Tillman will, as he himself says, make an interrogation of himself on Monday in the Senate. The subject of his interrogatories will be finance with particular reference to the national banking system and the issue of clearing house certificates which became such a common practice during the recent money squeeze. In the course of his remarks Senator Tillman will, review the failures of the John R. Walsh bank of Chicago and the Mercantile National bank in New York with the disclosures which have been made of the excessive loans made by the banks to their officers and directors.

The President has directed the Internal Revenue Department of the Treasury Department to put into effect immediately the ruling of the Attorney General last April on the subject of straight, blended, and compound whiskies.

Thomas Fitch Rowland, one of the best-known marine engineers and ship builders in the country, and the builder of the Monitor, died yesterday at his home in New York. He was born on March 15, 1831, in New Haven, Conn.

Secretary Metcalf has decided that, owing to the lack of available officers for service in the navy he cannot accept the resignation of Lieut. Leroy Brooks, jr., which was tendered a few days ago. Lieut. Brooks, who was recently married will, therefore, have to go to sea or be dishonorably discharged.

Absconding Treasurer William F. Walker, of the New Britain, Conn., Savings Bank, who has been arrested at Esenads, lower California, will not be sent home by the Mexican authorities, but will be held pending the arrival of an offical from the United States to take him back to answer charges of embezzling $565,000 from the bank and $55,000 from the Connecticut Baptist Association.

It is understood that Speaker Cannon has decided to give the democrats an additional member on most of the committees, in recognition of their increased numerical strength since the last Congress. It is not likely, however, that this will apply to the appropriations or the ways and means committees, as the Speaker is thought to be opposed to increasing them. The announcement of the list of committees has been postponed until next Thursday.

Breaking from one of two men engaged in butchering yesterday at Ravenna, Ohio, a 350-pound Yorkshire hog reared on its hind legs and pawed at John Bauman, forty years old, throwing him to the ground. In the melee, the big knife in Bauman's hand was struck downward by the hog's paws and plunged into Bauman's heart. He died instantly. The ground, moist with the blood of other hogs, was too slippery to afford safe footing, and Bauman went down to his death.

WHEN YOU PUT THE LATCHKEY IN THE DOOR.

When you put the latchkey in the door of your home, drop your business or profession; drop all the things which have vexed and worried and nagged you during the day; drop everything disagreeable. Just say to yourself, "I will not allow these shadows in my home. This is a shrine too sacred for discord, Resolve that peace, harmony, content ment shall reign there."

If you insist on worrying during the daytime, do not drag your worries home at night. Do not bring the black fiends which have destroyed your peace in the office into your home. Leave your cares and your troubles behind when you enter its doors.

The habit which many married people have of talking their troubles over at night and especialy at the dinner table is a most vicious one. The dinner bell should be a signal for the happiest time of the day. Every member of the family should go to the table with smiles—each one should bring his best, brightest and most cheerful things to it. No one should be allowed to complain or relate his unfortunate experience there. The assembling round the dinner table should be an occasion for fun and laughter—the enemies of indigestion.—[Success Magazine.

A TERRIBLE DISCOVERY.

While attending the funeral of a young man, supposed to be Wilbur Langley, Mrs. Orr, a prominent woman of Columbia, S. C, identified the corpse as that of Louis Sewell, her son by a former marriage.

The recognition created a scene in the church, where the funeral services were being held. No one had doubted that the corpse was that of Wilbur Langley.

Mrs. Langley had accepted the body as that of her son, and she and other relatives of young Langley viewed it and wept over it as such. At first Mrs. Langley resented Mrs. Orr's claim to the body, but friends prevented an outbreak, and it was interred, mourned by both women.

Three hours after the burial, Wilbur Langley arrived at his mother's home astonished to learn that he had been mourned as dead. The mistake was caused by the dead man having one of Langley's cards in his pocket.

Suicide of a Professor.

Williamsport, Pa., Dec. 14.—Prof. George Butz, aged 44, head of the Horticultural Department of State College, committed suicide today by leaping from the sixth story of the college building striking the college steps and breaking his neck. He had returned but a few days ago from a sanitarium in New York City where he was under treatment for nervousness.

Bark Aground.

Sandy Hook, N. J., Dec. 14 —The bark Edmund Phinney, Captain Anderson, went aground today off Sandy Hook proving ground in a heavy northeast gale and a blinding snowstorm. She left Savannah on December 11 and was bound for Perth Amboy with a cargo of lumber. Three men have been taken from the bark by the life-savers.

A splendid ball was given in honor of Admiral Evans and officers of his fleet by Manager and Mrs. G. F. Adams, at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point.

James L. White, of Abington, member of the Virginia Military Institue, Lexington, has tendered his resignation to the governor and it has been accepted. The governor today named George L. Browning, of Madison, to succeed Mr. White.

Mrs. Annie M. Hardie, widow of William Hardie, of Mount Jackson, died at the Winchester Memorial Hospital yesterday, aged seventy years. Mrs. Hardie was a daughter of Dr. Alonzo Triplett, of Shenandoah county.

Thomas Johnson, colored, was hanged yesterday at Hanover Court House for the murder of Chapman P. Sneed, a republican leader, who was waylaid, murdered and robbed while on his way from Richmond to pay off his employes on Saturday, October 5. Johnson's daughter, seventeen years of age, was one of the principal witnesses against him. Johnson was arrested in Richmond.

The board of directors of the Virginia penitentiary in its report to Governor Swanson, which has just been received, states that during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1907, the institution cleared $29,727.18, over and above all expenses. This result, too, was accomplished despite the fact that 206 convicts who otherwise would have been engaged in work remunerative to the State, were engaged on the public roads.

Willie Redmon, aged 19 years, the eldest son of D. W. Redmon, died at his home near Hickory Grove, Prince William county, on Saturday evening December 7, under the following distressing circumstances. Willie, who worked on a farm, had gone up on straw-rick to throw down some straw and, when through, started down with the fork. In some unaccountable way he slipped or lost his balance and in falling two of the fork tines pierced his left side and taking an upward course struck some vital part which caused his death within half an hour.

TROLLEY LINE TO RICHMOND?

The Richmond Journal of yesterday says that although the State of Virginia so jealously guards her interests in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad that she has incorporated in her constitution a provision allowing the Legislature to forbid the paralleling of the line, it is suspected by many that a movement is now afoot to evade the law by running a complete trolley line system from Richmond to Washington. And what is more, it is believed that the Goulds, who control the street car companies of Richmond and vicinity, are back of the movement. The Journal says a charter has been prepared for the Fredericksburg and Southern Railway to be presented to the State Corporation Commission. The charter authorizes the company to construct and operate an electric road from some point in Hanover county to Fredericksburg and northwestwardly, and also authorizes the running of an electric railway in the city of Fredericksburg, subject to the consent of the City Council. Furthermore, it is reported on pretty good authority that the Goulds have acquired extensive water rights at Fredericksburg on the Rappahannock river. It is also reported that the same syndicate has acquired control of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, which runs from Washington to Alexandria and then to Arlington and Mt. Vernon. It is also recalled now that in August, 1906, the Corporation Commission granted a charter to still another trolley line—the Front Royal, Rappahannock and Tidewater Railway, which aimed to have terminal points at Richmond and Front Royal. In the application for the charter it was explained that the line would run through the counties of Warren, Rappahannock, Madison, Green, Albemarle, Culpeper, Orange, Louisa, Fluvanna, Goochland, Hanover, Henrico, and Spotsylvania. Whether this road bears any relation to the suspected scheme of the Goulds remains to be seen.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

IS GLAD OF IT.

While talking to Mayor Dahlman, of Omaha, and Elmer E. Brown, of Lincoln, yesterday at the White House, the President is quoted as having said: "Tell the boys out in Omaha that if I am responsible for this money panic, which showed up the rotten foundations on which the finances of the country were built, I am glad of it. I don't care what governors and judges say, this panic had to come sooner or later. If I have been instrumental in bringing it about sooner than it would have come naturally, it is all the better. The panic showed the necessity for a general housecleaning in financial circles, and the sooner housecleaning is started the sooner it is over with."

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritible wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes." writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great Medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Loss of the Thomas W. Lawson.

London, Dec. 14.—The seven-masted schooner Thomas W. Lawson, the largest sailing vessel and the only seven-master in the world, was lost today off the Scilly Islands, to the southwest of the English coast.

One survivor and three corpses have been picked up. Captain Dow and the rest of the crew undoubtedly perished. They might have escaped when the ship was first driven on the Scilly rocks, but refused to leave their posts.

The Lawson, which was chartered to the Standard Oil Company, carried a large crew, and was bound from Philadelphia to London. Driven out of her course by the terrific storm, she anchored last night off the islands, Captain Dow evidently fearing she would otherwise drive on the reefs.

Watchers ashore saw the Lawson's lights until 3 a. m. when they suddenly vanished. At dawn the ship was seen floating bottom-upward in an oily sea.

It is conjectured that the cables parted and that the captain tried oil on the waves, but the storm was too heavy to be weathered and that the craft finally turned turtle, her seven masts serving to render her top heavy.

Several men who afterward proved to be members of the crew, were seen, as it grew lighter, on Annet Island, an uninhabitated rock forming one of the Scilly group.

A lifeboat crew went to the rescue, found three of the men already dead and the fourth and last semi-conscious from suffering. The survivor was taken to St. Agnes Island, where he is still too ill to give an account of the wreck and may not recover.

It is believed the other sailors certainly drowned, as they would undoubtedly have been heard from before this had any survived.

The gale is steadily increasing in violence and strewing the British coast with wreckage. It is feared the total loss of life will be heavy. All the lifeboats are at work.

London, Dec. 14.—The survivor on St. Agnes who proved to be George Allen, has finally recovered sufficiently to say that the Thomas W. Lawson's cables did not break, but that the vessel was literally rolled bottom-upwards by the terrific seas. His story agrees with the fact that the hull has not drifted ashore, but remains off the islands with little change in position, evidently still surging at her anchor chains.

The survivor's story is that there were twenty men in the crew. He is sure the rest were all drowned. He last saw the captain, mate and pilot lashed in the rigging.

The Lawson was launched at the Fore River ship yards at Quincy, Mass., July 10, 1902. She cost $250,000. From the moment she slid down the ways to the water she has had an unfortunate career. She has been aground a number of times and narrowly escaped being a total loss twice. Originally designed as a coal carrier, the Lawson proved a financial loss and was converted into an oil vessel.

Conditions in Goldfield.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 14.—Reports that violence is beginning to mark the miners' strike in the Goldfield district, that owners are resorting to the deportation of unionists, that General Funston considers the situation even worse than he had anticipated, that the mines will resume operations Monday with full forces of non-unionists and that the operators are showing signs of weakening are stirring up plenty of excitement here today.

Deputy Sheriff Bart Knight, detectives from the mine owners and officials of the union have gone from here to investigate, but have thus far been unable to verify any of these reports.

Gen. Funston's report was forwarded to Washington in cipher last night. While he refused to reveal any of its details, it is known that he expressed the opinion that there is an undercurrent of great bitterness and voiced the opinion that at least a small force should be kept in the gold fields for some time.

It is reported here that the miners have been run out of Jupiter at the point of guns by a delegations which called on them.

Suicide of Discharged Attendant.

Morris Plains, N. J., Dec. 14.—John V. Haake, an attendant at the State Hospital for the Insane, died today from the effects of a self-inflicted bullet wound. He was discharged yesterday afternoon for ill-treating a patient and several hours later turned up in the asylum corridor, a few feet from where members of the hospital staff were discussing affairs. Haake went up to Dr. Britton D. Evans, medical director, the alienist who testified at the Thaw and Bradley trials, and asked for reinstatement. Dr. Evans refused and Haake pulled a revolver from his pocket and sent the bullet into his head.

Train Ditched by Robbers.

Tiflis, Trans-Caucasia, Dec. 14.—A band of sixty robbers ditched the Tiflis-Baku mail train near Salakhlu last night, threw eight bombs among the struggling passengers and opened fire with their revolvers. The train guard answered the volley with rifles and, after a hot fight, drove the outlaws off. Many of the passengers and guards were wounded. They are being brought to hospitals here. Troops are pursuing the robbers, who carried off their wounded with them. They are believed to have sought treasure, of which the train usually carries a great deal.

Hostilities Renewed.

Ouidja, Morocco, Dec. 14.—Unable to agree with the French on peace terms the rebellious Bennis Nassen tribesmen have dropped negotiations with the Gallic Commander Gen Lyautey and resumed hostilities. The French, delayed in their operations by the prospects of a truce, are now pushing as rapidly as possible into the enemy's country. The tribesmen have already been defeated in several preliminary engagements and have, first and last, suffered heavy losses. Beports are hourly expected and still heavier fighting.

New York Stock Market.

New York, December 14.—Price movements on the stock exchange were generally narrow during the first hour. At the end of that period most of the changes were for fractions only, about only divided between unimportant gains and losses. Special influences prevailed in a few stock, where there was continued liquidation. Government bonds unchangod; other bonds lower.

Storm on the Coast.

New York, Dec. 14.—A storm is raging all along the entire coast. The entire east will catch it before long. In the north it is a snowstorm. To the southward it is rain; then sleet. The Weather Bureau has ordered storm warnings displayed from Baltimore to New York. The gale is working to the northward and increasing in strength. Brisk to high northeast winds were predicted for the middle Atlantic coast. It has them already. The telegraph companies are having endless trouble maintaining communication to the southward. Sleet is crippling their wires. All kinds of intra-urban traffic in greater New York are in bad shape. The elevated and surface cars can only crawl along the slippery rails. Trucking is a joke. Horses are stacked up all over the city. Six inches of slush covers the sidewalk. The harbor is a swirl of rain and mist. Shipping is having a hard time. Coastcraft are generally running for shelter. There seems a good prospect of losses at sea before the day is over.

Dance Halls to be Opened Tomorrow.

New York, Dec. 14.—There are seventeen New York dance halls, at any rate, which won't have blue Sunday tomorrow. Attorney Chas. O. Mass, counsel for their proprietors, has secured injunctions restraining the police from interfering with them.

Commissioner Bingham says service hasn't been made on him yet, but he supposed the precinct captains have been served. This does just as well. The commissioner has already told his subordinates that it's the part of "horse sense" not to interfere with Sunday entertainments protected against the police by injunctions.

In these seventeen cases the writs are returnable Tuesday. It is said ten of the injunctions were granted by Justice O'Gorman, who rendered the decision interpreting the closed Sunday law. The other seven are understood to come from Justice Truax's court.

The Romer Murder.

Orange, N. J., Dec. 14.—A man suspected of murdering Frederick R. Romer, the well-to-do undertaker, who was beaten to death with a bludgeon or hammer, in his room at the Park Hotel Friday, is under surveillance. While the police hunt was practically narrowed down to a singles uspect, they are delaying an arrest in the hope that a few days' freedom may lead Romer's slayer to betray himself, furnishing evidence on which a conviction may reasonably be expected. The detectives believe Romer was the victim in a second Burdick case, that the man who killed him did not intend to take his life, that he went to the undertaker's hotel room to look for letters compromising to a third person, failed to find them, concluded that they were in Romer's pocket, awaited his return, undertook a search and committed murder in order to accompliah his original purposes.

Blizzard in Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Chicago today is in the grip of a blizzard. A series of fires entailing losses reaching $100,000, and robberies incident to the storm were reported between midnight and daylight. Under cover of the blizzard highwaymen held up a dozen men. Herman P. Pette, one of their victims, resisted and was shot twice.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of my beloved son, WILLIAM D. ZIMMERMAN, who departed this life December 15, 1903—four years ago tomorrow.

The voice is silent, the heart is now cold,
The smile and welcome that met us of old;
We miss him and mourn him in sorrow unseen,
And dwell on the memory of days that have been.

How sad to think of that parting day,
That voice so still and far away;
Thy will be done on earth, we pray,
Our son in glory looking this way.

SNOW AND RAIN.

The threatening weather of yesterday afternoon was followed by snow and subsequently rain about eleven o'clock last night. A cold northerly wind was also in evidence. By daylight the streets were in a condition to keep all persons within doors who had no urgent business without. Of course, there were many who had to face the elements, most of whom were accoutred with rubber shoes or boots and umbrellas. At many points it was necessary to wade, especially along the Strand. There are many broken rainspouts in that section of the city, and they sent streams of water on the pavements which added to the annoyance of pedestrians.

M., of Alexandria city, paid a fraternal visit to Columbia Lodge, No. 285, of Arlington, Monday night, Dec. 9th, the former lodge giving an exemplification of the work in its usual perfect manner. R. W. Bro. Walter Tansell Oliver, D. D. G. M., of District No. 1, was present in his official capacity and delivered an address along Masonic lines, in his usual effective manner. W. Bro. W. C. Shelly, W. M. T. B. Cochran, of No. 22, and W. M. W. C. Wibirt, of No. 285, also delivered addresses. Refreshments were served.—[County Monitor.

BASKETBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Association basketball team will play the National Guard Athletic Association, of Washington, at their hall on King street, at 8:30 o'clock tonight. A good game is promised all who attend. Next Saturday the A. A. A. will play the Muscatine team of Muscatine, Iowa, champions of America. The Alexandria team will be strengthened by players of the Belvideres of Baltimore, and a close game is expected.

VERDICT FOR THE RAILROAD.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the jury in the case of J Louis Loose vs. the Southern Railway Company yesterday evening returned a verdict for the defendant company. Mr. Loose, a florist, has his gardens and greenhouses on south Patrick street near Hunting Creek. He sued the railroad company for $20,000, alleging that the smoke, soot and ashes from the stacks of its machine shops and locomotives damaged his plants and flowers to that extent. The case was tried at a special term of the Circuit Court for the city presided over by Judge Harrison, of Winchester, and occupied four days. The jury, after an hour's deliberation, returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. Counsel for the plaintiff moved for a new trial, which was overruled and moved for an arrest of judgment, which also was overruled. The court entered an order giving counsel sixty days, in which to have a bill of exception signed to ask for a writ of error in the Supreme Court of Appeals. The railroad company was represented by Col. F. L. Smith and Mr. R. D. Brumback and Mr. Loose by Messrs. Norton & Boothe. This was the second trial, the jury in the previous one having failed to agree.

PRESBYTERIAN CHUROH.

Although Rev. Dr. Flinn, who has been preaching at the Presbyterian Church, has left, the services are continuing without break, and the large congregation and interest shown last night were as marked as while Dr. Flinn was here. There will be an unusual service held this evening, and on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 there will be a mass meeting for men only, at which Mr. Tom Harrison will speak. Mr. Dailey, the sweet tenor singer of the Dailey quartet, has returned and will sing at the service tonight and all the services on Sunday.

THE MARKET.

Considering the inclemency of the weather, there was a large display of country produce in market this morning. In fact, the supply of some articles seemed to exceed the demand. Dressed chickens were in abundance, and early in the day they were being held at 35a 75 cents each. It was generally conceded that material concessions would be made in these prices later. Eggs were selling at 35a40 cents per dozen and butter at 30a35 cents a pound. Fresh pork sold at 14a15 cents a pound. Some Christmas greens were on some of the benches.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of Miss Marion Beach Johnson took place this evening from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, on Prince street, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather was attended by a large number of friends who gathered to pay tribute to one whom they so justly loved. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips and the pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Brookes, Algernon Chalmers, Daingerfield Addison, Frank Garnett, Frederick Taylor, J. T. Burke jr., and J. W. Burke.

PLACED WREATH ON TOMB.

In accordance with the annual custom, Worshipful Master Cochran, of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, of this city, and Worshipful Master Stiff, of the Fredericksburg Lodge, proceeded to Mount Vernon today and placed a wreath upon the tomb of George Washington, being the 106th anniversary of his death. On account of the unpropitious weather, but few witnessed the ceremony. The wreath was made by the Mrs. F. J. Kramer Floral Company, of this city.

RED MEN.

Osceola Tribe, No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, has elected the following officers: J. P. Anderson, prophet; F. J. Lightfoot, sachem; Bernard Schmith, senior sagmore; O. J. Schmith, junior saganore; Charles Nagel, chief of records; Frederick Kaus, keeper of wampum; E. F. Downham, collector of wampum. Mr. E. F. Downham was elected representative to the great council at Lynchburg next May.

SWINDLER SENTENCED.

Tyler Hodges, colored, was sent to jail for six months in Washington Thursday charged with stealing goods to the amount of 50 cents and $4.50 in change from a druggist in the southwestern section of the city. Hodges is said to be the same darkey who a few nights ago swindled a King street druggist out of $1.20 worth of goods and $3.80.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning. Stanley Grinnell, colored, was arrested by Officer Nicholson at the instance of William Schuler, who charged him with using abusive language. The complainant failed to appear and the accused was dismissed.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Dr. Curtis Lee Laws, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Baltimore, delivered a lecture last night in the George R. Hill Memorial Building of the Methodist Episcopal Church South on "Vacation Rambles in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales." The lecture was illustrated by many stereopticon views.

AN OLD STAMP.

A lady of this city has in her possession a local postage stamp, dated 1852, which was used in Alexandria when the late Daniel Bryan was postmaster. It is said that the owner of the stamp has been offered $2,000 for it.

POLICE AGENT.

Upon the application of the Southern Railway Company Judge Barley today appointed Mr. M. L. Pankey, a police agent for that company.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all drug stores.

BROTHERHOOD OE ST. ANDREW

At the annual meeting of the Alexandria assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held at St. Paul's Church, yesterday evening, the following officers were elected:

J. L. Jackson, president; C. C. Brawner, vice president; Reginald Tatepaugh, secretary; James E. Nagel, treasurer.

PERSONAL.

Rev. Frank P. Berkley, formerly of this city, but at present located at Leesburg, will preach at the Baptist Church, both morning and evening tomorrow.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the Baptist Church, will present the claims of the Woman's College and Endowment funds before the Leesburg Baptist Church tomorrow.

THE GOLF GROUNDS.

Mr. F. L. Slaymaker, who has the Shooter's Hill property in charge, has notified the secretary of the Golf Club that the plans for the development of the property will not in any way disturb the club house, which will be placed in the centre of a large lot on the sub-division plan, which lot will be sold or leased to the club as it may desire.

How Diptheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A PEEP AT THE PAST.

I would rather dress in sackcloth
With my passions in control
Than to stand around in broadcloth
With but ashes in my soul.
For I never was more happy
In my life, that I recall,
Than the time I wore a gunny—
And I had no shoes at all.

And I'd give a great big dollar,
Which is quite a bit for me,
Just to see my old Glengarry
And the patches on each knee.
And I'd laugh to see the picture
In the column labeled Wants,
Like a little window shutter
On the bosom of my pants.

Oh, of course I know you're laughing,
But my eyes are in the swim,
So I scarce can see the paper
And the writing's sort of dim,
While I'm thinking of another
That is numbered with the dead
And who always did the patching
After I had gone to bed.

And it's her that keeps me human
When the troubled waters roll;
And her tears keep irrigating
Little blossoms in my soul.
And whenever I get ego—
As I'm getting more refined,
I think of dear old mother
And the patches left behind.

A Home Made Happy By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

MURDERESS ON THE STAND.

Mrs Edward M. Peebles, charged with the murder of her husband, on August 31 last, took the stand in her own defense at Bedford City, Va., yesterday, giving her version of the killing. She was on the stand practically the entire day.

She testified that her married life had been one long period of abuse at the hands of her husband. She said he had frequently beaten her, at various times attacking her with a hatchet and a razor, and kicking her.

She said that on the afternoon of the tragedy she was at work in a detached kitchen when Peebles came home drunk and quarrelsome. He attempted to choke her and she struck him in the face with a stove-lifter. He then secured an axe-handle and struck her several blows, and she rushed into the house and returned with a gun and a pistol. He rushed at her with the axe-handle and she fired. He fell, but arose again and chased her, catching her and struggling for possession of the gun. She struck him on the head with a rock and killed him.

She said she and her son could not lift the body, so they hitched horse to it and dragged it to the house, where they covered it with a wagon canvass, sticks, and rocks.

FINANCIAL.

An investment you wish to make, rest assured the safest investment you can possibly make is to deposit your money in the Savings Department of this corporation where it will earn 3 per cent. interest compounded twice a year. Your principal will then be always at your command and cannot depreciate in value. You can start an account with this corporation for $1.00 or upwards. If you have other investments in view isn't it advisable to have your MONEY MAKING MONEY while you are deciding this matter. There's many a $1 or $5 bill spent unnecessarily because it is carried in the pocket, when a savings account would have discouraged or prevented the expenditure. A bank account is not only a convenience, but a great encourager of economy, so why not commence right and open an account with us today. We invite you to do so and promise courteous and liberal treatment consistent with sound banking methods.

By R. F. Knox, Auctioneer.

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, including valuable MACHINE SHOPS AND FOUNDRY, ALL EQUIPMENT AND MACHINERY, AND A NUMBER OF BOILERS, ENGINES, AND A QUANTITY OF BRASS, IRON, ETC.

Pursuant to a decree of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, entered on the tenth day of October, 1907, in a chancery cause therein depending, wherein Charles W. Moore is the plaintiff, and T. Alton Moore et als are defendants, the undersigned will offer for sale at public auction, on the 19th day of December, 1907,

THURSDAY,

at 11 o'clock a. m., in front of the machine shop known as W. S. Moore's Sons, the following real estate and personal property in the city of Alexandria, Virginia:

The place of sale may be transferred from one piece of property to another, if deemed advisable.

The machine shop and foundry and all the machinery used in connection therewith, and all patterns belonging to the firm of W. S. Moore's Sons, may be sold as a whole or separately. Offers for the said property at private sale may be submitted at any time before the said sale, as a whole or separately. The property to be sold is as follows:

1. All that lot of ground beginning on the north side of Duke street, 88 feet 9 inches west of Union street, and at the west line of an alley 18 feet 9 inches wide, and running thence west on Duke street 17 feet; thence north 100 feet; thence east 17 feet, and thence south in a direct line 100 feet to the beginning, with the right of way over the said alley.

2. All that lot of ground with the dwelling house thereon beginning on the north side of Duke street 105 feet 9 inches west of Union street, and running thence west on Duke street 23 feet; thence north parallel to Union street 100 feet; thence east parallel to Duke street 23 feet, and thence south in a direct line 100 feet to the point of beginning.

3 All that lot of ground beginning on the north side of Duke street 153 feet 9 inches west of Union street and running thence west on Duke street 22 feet 10 inches; thence north parallel to Union street 100 feet; thence east parallel to Duke street 22 feet 10 inches; thence south in a direct line 100 feet to the beginning.

4. All that lot of ground with the dwelling house and improvements thereon, beginning at a point on the west side of Lee street 176 feet 7 inches south of Wolfe street, and running thence southwardly with Lee street 33 feet 9 inches; thence westwardly parallel to Wolfe street 123 feet 5 inches; thence northwardly parallel to Lee street 33 feet 9 inches, and thence eastwardly parallel to Wolfe street 123 feet 5 inches to the beginning, together with all rights and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

5. All that lot of ground with the improvements thereon beginning on the west side of Lee street 210 feet 4 inches south of Wolfe street, and running thence south on Lee street 16 feet 3 inches; thence west parallel to Wolfe street 123 feet 5 inches; thence north parallel to Lee street 16 feet 3 inches, and thence east in a direct line 123 feet 5 inches to the point of beginning.

6. All that lot of ground in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, with the buildings thereon, consisting of two dwelling houses, beginning in the center of the square bounded by Fairfax, Lee, Wolfe and Wilkes streets, at a point equally distant from Fairfax and Lee streets in one direction, and from Wolfe and Wilkes streets in the other direction, and at the south line of an alley 20 feet wide, and running east with the line, formerly Keith's, 47 feet; thence north parallel to Lee street 25 feet 4 inches; thence west parallel to Wolfe street 47 feet to the said alley, and then by a straight line to the beginning, with the right of way in common with others entitled thereto over a strip of land 2 feet 8 inches wide, extending from the east line of said ground to Lee street, binding on the line formerly Keith's.

7. All that lot of ground with the building thereon, used as a foundry, situated on the north side of Duke street and west of Union street, and their intersection, in front on Duke street 70 feet, and on Union street 30 feet, the back lines being of the same length respectively as the corresponding front lines, and binding on an alley 18 feet 9 inches wide running north from Duke street, and binding on the east line of said property, with the right of way over the said alley.

8. Beginning on an alley thirty feet wide running from Union street westwardly, at a point 88 feet 9 inches west of Union street and 148 feet 4 inches north of Duke street, and running thence west on said alley 40 feet; thence south parallel to Union street 48 feet 4 inches; thence east parallel to Duke street 40 feet, to an alley 18 feet 9 inches wide; thence along said last named alley 48 feet 4 inches to the point of beginning, with the right of way over said alleys in common with others entitled thereto.

9. All that lot of ground improved by a building used as a machine shop, beginning at the intersection of the south side of Duke street with the west side of Potomac Strand, and running thence southwardly with the west side of the said Potomac Strand 100 feet to the north line of an alley 20 feet wide, which extends with that width westwardly from said Strand a distance of 93 feet, thence westwardly with the north line of said alley 62 feet; thence north parallel to the first line 100 feet to Duke street, and thence east on Duke street 62 feet to the beginning, with the right of way over and the use of said Strand and alley in common with others entitled thereto.

10. All that machinery used in connection with the said machine shop and foundry, together with a great number of patterns used in connection with said machine shop and foundry, and also a number of boilers, engines, and a lot of iron, brass, unions, piping, tools, coke, etc., and one automobile.

Terms of sale: Cash as to personalty, and one-third cash and the balance in 6 and 12 months as to realty, title to be retained until all the purchase money is paid, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.

Plats of the property and further information at the office of Douglass Stuart.
